

BACKBONE BOURBON

DECADE DOWN

Straight Bourbon Whiskey

Decade Down is a straight bourbon where we used a combination of our finest “honey” barrels between 5 and 7 years old. 25% of the bourbon used had been in sherry barrels for 12 months. Our first batch of Backbone Uncut (our first product) was released in December 2010 thus the reason for this special anniversary edition. We plan to do a new “Decade Down” release every year going forward.

Tasting Notes: Our blend begins on the palate with rich, caramel notes. Subtle spices and dry sweetness start to make way, following with a smooth oak finish while the sherry barrels add a pleasant mouth feel. Decade Down is best sipped neat with a drop or two of water.

Backbone Bourbon Anniversary Edition Decade Down Uncut, 55%

Decade Down includes a portion of sherry cask-finished bourbon, creating a layered whiskey that shows the influence of the sherry casks without overpowering the base whiskey. The nose is vanilla and caramel-forward, with those boldest aromas resting on top of sarsaparilla, cola float, and chocolate oranges. The palate revels in flavors of cinnamon graham crackers, raspberries and cream, and blueberry scone, all backed up by vanilla, honey, and grainy sweetness.
